

2022-23

Scenario Writing Competition Scenario Performance Competition

Washington Future Problem Solving

Do you have a penchant for writing short stories and want to compete in an International Contest against students in your age division? The scenario writing competition allows you to write for a real audience and the winners compete at the international level.

Deadline for Scenario Writing entries: January 17, 2023

Do you enjoy storytelling and would like to compete against others in a competition where you voice a short, futuristic story and compete against students from around the state? The scenario performance competition allows you to captivate your audience with your skills as an orator and the winners compete at the International level.

Deadline for Scenario Performance entries: February 6, 2023

Topics for this year: E-Waste
 Digital Realities
 Robotic Workforce
 Throw Away Society

For more information about these two separate competitions, please go to wafps.org, click on FPS and FPS Components.

Washington Future Problem Solving
A non-profit 501(c)(3) organization
wafps.org